Josias DuPRE Jnr Mary Esther DuPRE	from the region of La Rochelle, & the Isle de Ré on the Bay of Biscay, France London, England South Carolina, USA	The family fled France immediately after Louis XIV revoked the Edict of Nantes in 1685. The "Edict" had given the Huguenots political freedom as Protestants 1685. First the family went to Middleburg, the capital of the Province of Zeeland at the River Schelde in the Netherlands. From there they went to London, England and crossed the Atlantic to Carolina. Josias Snr immigrated to the USA in 1686 with his wife Martha, his father Samuel, and his own children. While there he met the boy Benjamin Simons whom he took into his family, taking him with his family when he went to America. Benjamin Simons later married his benefactors daughter Mary DuPie.
