1629										1886: Denmark St., Kew, Vic.	1830, Oct. 26: Arrived at Westminster to make her home with Andrew McCrae.
1630
1631										1838, Nov. 13: The family was to sail for Australia in the 'Royal Saxon' but her early birth of Farquhar P. McCrae and being ill prevented this. By agreement, Andrew sailed & she was left behind to follow later when her health improved.
1632
1634
1635										1840, Oct. 25: Georgiana and the children were booked to sail to Australia aboard the 'Argyle'.
1636										They arrived at Hobsons Bay, Williamstown (Melbourne) on 1841, March 1 (a).
1637										They settled in 'Argyle Cottage' in Lonsdale Street, Melbourne which Andrew had rented.
1638										Land was bought on the Yarra River near where Church St. now crosses Victoria St, Abbotsford to build a new house which was named 'Mayfield'. In 1842 the family moved into the still unfinished house. Due to Andrwe's ineptitude they never owned this house either as both the land and house were financed on borrowed money which he never managed to repay.
1639
1640										1845, June: The family moved from Melbourne to Arthurs Seat where Andrew took up a squatters run. Georgiana delayed following him as long as possible but eventually joined him to find that there was no livable home to start off with. She got things moving and soon established home for the family again. After 6 years there they left, returning to Melbourne in 1851.
1641										Andrew had been unable to make a living off the land he had selected.
1642
1643										1851: Andrew finally got a government post at Aliberton in Gippsland, however Georgiana and the children remained living in Melbourne.
1644
1645										1860: On the death of her fathers wife, Elizabeth Brodie, Duchess of Gordon, Georgiana was devastated to find thather fathers wishes were not carried out and she received nothing from the Gordon estate. It was expected that she would have received at least £10,000 (a).
1646
1647										1867: Georgiana & Andrew separated. Ah had been moved to a government position on the goldfields.
1648										1871: After the marriage of her son George & daughter Margaret, she moved out of George's East Melbourne home & lived for a while with her friend Mrs Raymond (a).
1649										1875: Georgiana again lived between George's home, 'Anchorfield', Hawthorn & her daughters home in 'Garston', Crewswick St., West Hawthorn, Melbourne (a).
1650
1651										1886: Georgiana set up house in Denmark Street, Kew with her daughter Francis Moore and her children (a).
