15	SWINTON, Alfred	-	I	USA	?	(b: c1950-70's)	-	-	Hartford, Connecticut area, USA	He was an African-American who committed several homicides in the Hartford, Connecticut area. An arrest announced on Aug. 10, 1998 for the 1991 murder of Carla Terry of Hartford. A police officer discovered Terry's body lying atop a snowbank on Mark Twain Drive extension in Hartford. Advances in forensic science are credited with police being able to make Swinton's arrest as officials had relied on an impression of Swinton's teeth. A state forensic expert was able to predict with reasonable certainty that the bite found on Terry's body matched Swinton's dental model (a).	Misc	Mouer, Margaret (from TV shown in the USA.
