989										1922: She was running a mission on Grant St., Stockton.
990										Later she became the Pastor of the Pentacostal Ch. of
991										Christ on San Joaquin St., Stockton. It is thought that later
992										the Gov't took over the mission & named it Swinton House
993										- no record can be found, nor any sign of the mission. She is
994										thought to have fed & ministered to the poor. She is also
995										thought to have had a black or mexican girl in her keeping.
996										Lydia never married & left everything to the church.
997										1948: buried Parkview Cem. on French Ck. Rd.,
998										Stockton. A tombstone was erected by her parish
999										to mark her grave.
