As a youth Thomas went to Dundee to be apprenticed to the blacksmith trade. Both Thomas & John were the informants of Thomas's parents in 1882 & 1892. 1867/8: the PO Directory for Dundee District lists Thomas S., Coachbuilder of Lowe's Land Hospital Wynd, Dundee. 1890: He was listed as T.S. Carriage Builder of 17 Small's Wynd and Queens Hotel Buildings, Dundee when his business works extended from Small's Wynd to Park Wynd. His showrooms were in the Queens Hotel Buildings where specimens of his work were on display: white chapels, landaulettes, broughams, dog carts, tradesman's vans and machines of every description. He developed an appliance, "Swintons Patent Head Lift" for opening & closing carriage heads. In 1890 Thomas employed 30 people. His firm built the cars for the Dundee Tramway Company. For a long time he was an elder of St Davids Parish Church, Dundee. His sons went into the business and the firm was managed by his son James after he retired from the business. The firm was still operating as Thomas Swinton & Sons Ltd in 1942/3 as coachbuilders & motor engineers of 9-21 Smalls Wynd, Dundee. His wife predeceased him. 1995: At the House of Dun, but not on public display is a rare example of a governess cart built by his company. Also at the Nat.
