The Sir Walter Scott Chairs

A dining setting was made for Scott by a craftsman in Venice. In the early 1900's the chairs became dispersed and are located thus:

2 chairs are located in St Pauls Cathedral, (Church of England), Melbourne, Victoria, Australia and are used solely by members of the British Royal Family when they attend church in Melbourne. They are just inside the alter rail at either side of the sanctuary.

2 chairs are somewhere in Florence, Italy.

2 chairs remain at Abbotsford, Scotland.
