

SWINTON: Chart 17A, Sheet 1

In 1724 WILLIAM SWINTON, son of Alexander Swinton and Margaret Moncrieff emigrated to South Carolina, USA probably accompanied by his brother Hugh. He went on to do extensive surveys in Georgetown County and township, becoming known in the family as the "Royal Surveyor to the Crown". This chart shows his descendant links as well as the family and relatives of his wife HANNAH (WHITE BROWN).

Drafted 1993, updated August 2001

William White
= (Hannah ...?)